Ryan, Please send to COucnillor Fleury and c.c. Kim Ayotte, Council Liaison

Councillor,
The ongoing demonstration downtown is expected to draw thousands of people and cause significant traffic disruptions. The responses to the inquires from CF Rideau Centre are as follows:

1. As identified by Ottawa Police Services, people are encouraged to avoid the downtown core as a resurgence in protest activity is anticipated this coming weekend. It is up to each business owner to assess their risk with respect opening or closing in accordance with this information.

2. Ottawa Police has advised that they do not provide paid duty officers for private policing. Business owners need to hire private security if they want an increased security presence.

   Neither the Ontario Provincial Police (OPP) not RCMP have jurisdictional authority to conduct paid duties in the City of Ottawa.

Thank you,

I can understand the flood of requests.

Mckenney and I are both most impacted. I am not flooding your mail box.

Rideau Centre is not just any business.

Thank you for your attention on this matter.

Hi Steve, Mathieu, Kim, and Chief Sloly,

See below 2 clear questions from the Rideau Centre.

Can City and OPS respond clearly to Brian by replying to this email?

Thank you
Mat

Hi Mathieu, I'm hopeful City of Ottawa or Ottawa Police services can provide a more official response to the questions that we face as the area's largest commercial landlord.

1) Is it safe or unsafe to open and operate the CF Rideau Centre?

2) We understand from our discussions with you and OPS that paid duty OPS officers are not available to support the safe re-opening. Is there any way to leverage the support of OPP or RCMP, whose resources have been made available, to aid in the safe operation of our Centre?

Our accountability is to our paying Tenants, and our obligation is to be able to operate a first-class shopping centre. For five and a half days we have been unable to meet that requirement. Thank you in advance for your assistance.
